

MEMBER BENEFIT: HEALTH INSURANCE

You asked for it... now you have it.

Health plan options for employers with as few as 2 full-time employees.

But only if you're a member.

Our industry has been asking for health insurance and it's finally here. Small, midsize or large employers that become Wisconsin Restaurant Association members now have access to exclusive health insurance pricing and solutions.

The recently launched Restaurant & Hospitality Association Benefit Trust offers:

- Availability to restaurant and lodging members with 2-99 full-time employees
- Over 120 health plan designs through UnitedHealthcare
- Same product selection and pricing flexibility that larger employers receive

Affordable health insurance solutions and plan discounts are available exclusively to WRA members. With benefits like these, it pays to be a member.

The RHA Benefit Trust is part of a suite of wellness solutions offered through the Hospitality Associations Alliance, an alliance platform created by the National Restaurant Association and UnitedHealth Group to benefit WRA members.
