The Wisconsin Center’s third floor loading dock area is the only major access to load in and out of the exhibit hall. Unless your exhibit materials can be hand-carried or transported on small cart or dolly with non-marking tires through the front of the facility, you should use the loading dock area to unload. Please follow all listed policies & procedures (as seen in the “Rules & Regulations” section in this manual) when loading in and out of the building.

EXHIBITOR UNLOADING AT LOADING DOCK AREA
Any Exhibitor or Exhibitor Appointed Contractor (EAC) must request a Dock Pass if they wish to access the loading dock area. Information on how to request dock passes can be found on page FL-01 in the "Freight & Labor" section in this manual. Exhibitors planning to unload themselves at the loading dock area will need to select a specific target delivery date and time. Contact the hotel and mention you are attending the Expo. Our group name for participating hotels is MIDWEST FOODSERVICE EXPO. All room rates are subject to applicable taxes (currently 15.1%).

Hotels in addition to those noted above will likely be added to our list. To learn more, check the "Travel Info" section on our website at www.everythingfoodservice.org.

Attention - Housing Pirate Warning:

It has come to our attention that certain companies are contacting Midwest Foodservice Expo exhibitors in hopes that they (the exhibitor) will book hotel reservations through them. Some company names we’re aware of include Expo Housing Services, CBS International, and TravelLingo. There may be others as well.

The Midwest Foodservice Expo has ABSOLUTELY NO relationship with any of these companies or any other similar housing services. Our Expo secures hotel blocks with downtown Milwaukee hotels and lists each of them on our website. All reservations are done directly by the individual with the hotel that they wish to book. We DO NOT have a third party that arranges hotel reservations.
